Dear all Medical Students Worldwide,

The School of Medicine University of Belgrade and IFMSA-Serbia was honored to invite you to join up in the second Global Students' Conference of Biomedical Sciences in Belgrade 2015!

From 15nd to 18th October 2015, the first Global Students' Conference of Biomedical Sciences is going to take place in Belgrade, the capital of Serbia. Biomedical Sciences and Research represent a great adventure to which every young person aspires. Medical education in scientific research and as well as the acquisition of scientific working skills are of great importance to academic institutions of biomedical sciences on the globe. The aims of our conference are to bring undergraduate and postgraduate students of biomedical sciences (medicine, stomatology, veterinary, pharmacy) together and offer them an opportunity to present the results of their investigations and to discuss them with colleagues and leading experts. We also welcome and encourage students of PhD programs to present their research findings at our congress. We are also preparing for you academic Lectures, Workshops, Courses, cultural activities and a rich Social Program.

The Fees for GSC Belgrade: Passive participants (early registration €35, late registration €45), Active participants (early registration €45, late registration €55) and Passive participants (payment on desk €60).
